

Duo Katharina Deserno / Nenad Lecic

“Brilliant chamber music formation”

Since 2002, Katharina Deserno and Nenad Lečić are playing together as duo. For the label Kaleidos they were recording three CDs with works of Clara Schumann, Fanny Mendelssohn, Rebecca Clarke, Ludwig van Beethoven, Sergei Rachmaninov and Alexander Gretchaninov i.a. including first recordings of Oxana Omelchuk and Konrad Lang. Both recordings were explicitly praised by the specialized press, like, e.g. by the NMZ and Das Orchester; concerning the production and the recorded works, the Westfälische Zeitung wrote: “A real eye-opener” and the magazine The Listener headlined: “Discoveries non-stop”, and finally, “...brilliant chamber music formation. To such an excellent chamber music production one does not listen to every day”.

The concert pianist Nenad Lečić gives international concerts as soloist and chamber musician. Next to Katharina Deserno, his chamber music partners are Tamara Stefanovich, Pierre-Laurent Aimard, Ralph Manno and Xenia Jankovich. Nenad Lečić played with famous orchestras such as the Bamberg Symphony, the Chamber Orchestra of Europe, the Belgrade Radio Orchestra, in concert halls such as the Cologne Philharmonic Hall, Amsterdam Concert Hall i.a. and is regularly invited to festivals. He has been awarded numerous prizes, and received tribute as Young European Top Talent from RAI-TV. Radio and TV broadcasts, and several CD-productions. Nenad Lečić is lecturer at Cologne University of Music and Dance.

www.nenadlecic.com